Three men and a husband and wife share their personal struggle with pornography confronting the lies and darkness of this addictive force with compelling honesty and hope. The DVD also contains four music videos and eight vignettes. The 55 minute bonus CD contains 9 original songs, stories, poetry, and scripture readings. The total project creates a life-giving journey into freedom; a journey that leads into the light and celebrates the dignity of every human being.

AFA... As I sit here in God's gift of tears... I am reminded of the struggle that I have had with pornography all through my life. Starting at age 10 through the time that I became a Christian and finally had to wrestle with the habit at age 38. God has slowly healed that place in my sexual spirit that I had so successfully smothered with pornography and promiscuity up until that time. God gifted me with a wonderful Godly husband that knows everything about my past and helped hold me accountable. It is a place that I still cannot give even a thought to or my "flesh" will take it and run with it. Satan knows our weaknesses and will confront us even when we are not seeking "it" out. That is when I must DECIDE to follow my Lord and ask Him for His Supernatural strength...because in our weakness He is made strong. Our God is an awesome God...and as it says in the video...He pursues us even though we don't "deserve" it...forgives us..accepts us in that horrible condition and loves us into healing. I wanted you to know that this is a powerful video that needs to be shown in every church across the nation and beyond. Yet sadly...I believe that there are many churches that won't be bold enough to share it. My prayer is that God would open the hearts and minds of our pastors and the minds of the elders in order to get God's message of healing to a hurting world...a world of hurting Christians. I don't know if you will be surprised by this or not...but I am a 50 year old woman...raised in a Christian home...that struggled with this issue my entire life. I have shared my story over and over with the women that I am in bible study with and with their teenage children (with the parents consent). Just to be transparent with them....so that they don't feel like they are alone and that they do not have to keep the secret anymore. I am not ashamed of my God's grace and mercy in my life and I know that God will use us to help those in bondage. Praise God for your faithfulness to get this DVD out....and praise God for the people that were involved in making this miraculous story come alive. I was so touched..Thank you..and God Bless You. Michelle...Tampa, Florida P>S> I just tried to purchase this wonderful story and I am unable to purchase this DVD on your site. Am I doing something wrong...or are you out of this product?

My husband and I watched the movie segments together and we thought this is a very good documentary. The message that pornography is addictive and your not alone is such an important message for everyone to hear. You also addressed the issue of shame that people feel and that having a personal relationship with Jesus is the only way to lift this burden. As a wife, I respected what Shelly had to say and I understood how she felt. It was good to hear from her. Things that I would have also appreciated being touched on is the issue of pornography for single men and women. In the ministry that I work in I have heard from both genders that pornography is a huge and they don't have a spouse to hide from, disappoint, or hold them accountable. Melissa
